PROJECTS

CREDO-MAZE

OCTOBER 2024 - PRESENT

Web app that helps in conducting Professor's scientific research

- A team project carried out as part of a scientific study led by Prof. Tadeusz Wibig, PhD, DSc.
- I am responsible for building a web app for automated processing of research files, displaying data with various filtering and sorting options, developing a robust Express.js API, and designing an effective MySQL database.
- The project is still in progress.

Meuka

OCTOBER 2024 - NOVEMBER 2024

MERN stack-based eCommerce website

- The project is a simulation of a real-life clothing shop with features like user authentication, ordering items, and order management.
- Developed a fully functional web app using TypeScript for type safety, implemented a JWT library for secure user sessions, and built a responsive UI with Sass.
- Solo project.

JustBucks

JULY 2024 - SEPTEMBER 2024

Expense manager built with React

- With an intuitive design, this app allows users to track their expenses and incomes easily and display them in charts using Chart.js. Users are able to filter and sort their data. Data is stored in the browser's local storage.
- Solo project.

STUDENT ACTIVITY
